This is an accommodation note and should fit just above the errata

The lavish Four Seasons is perfectly situated on the banks of the River Nile in the heart of Cairo. Interiors are grand and opulent, with vintage furnishings and luxurious embellishments decorating the gracefully appointed rooms.

The rooftop gardens are a wonderful spot to relax and sunbathe, with two outdoor pools surrounded by sun loungers and shaded private lounge areas. The Pool Grill is adjacent to the pool area and offers light bites, casual lunch and pool-side service. The luxury spa also offers an indoor adults-only pool as well as a Turkish hammam and a selection of luxury treatments like Moroccan bath rituals and energising scrubs.

The Four Seasons, renowned for its culinary excellence, houses a large selection of glamorous restaurants, all boasting panoramic views. La Galerie excels at elegant French fine-dining, Bullona's masters the art of Mediterranean cuisine and 8 is the finest Asian restaurant in the city. For authentic Egyptian fare, dine at Zitouni and sample delicious mezze platters while admiring Nile views.

NILE CRUISE | DAY ONE

Date Wed 05 Apr 2023

Time 12:30

Board the Movenpick cruise vessel and begin your luxury cruise journey with lunch on board. After dining, visit some of Aswan's most renowned sites. First stop is the High Dam, an impressive feat of engineering that holds a massive reservoir, providing water for the entire city. Then, it's on to Philae Temple, a picturesque structure sitting on Aglika Island and Unfinished Obelisk, a funerary monument that was left unfinished thousands of years ago. Return to the Nile cruise and enjoy dinner on board.

Reflective of its name, Coeur de Megève is in the heart of Megève, just a three-minute walk from the Chamois ski lift. A boutique style hotel, the exterior is a classic chalet style, while interiors are chic and luxurious. Le Spa is the ideal place to unwind, offering a range of organic treatments as well as a unique rest area with herbal teas and organic superfood. There is also a nail bar, sensory shower and sauna. For those who wish to simply relax and enjoy the views, The Fireplace Lounge is a lovely space with comfy sofas and large bay windows.

Expect outstanding cuisine at La Muse, a restaurant that celebrates seasonal and local produce of the region. The bar, Le Meige, is a chic spot for après ski, with a selection of perfectly crafted cocktails and tasty small plates.

Rooms are one of the highlights in Coeur de Megève. They are wonderfully stylish with muted tones, Scandinavian-style furnishings and pops of modern artwork. Each room opens out onto a panoramic balcony with views of the surrounding mountains.
